Inspirational interviews about VC and life with emerging managers

Ramzi Rafih

NO LABEL VENTURES

Ramzi is the founder and solo GP of No Label Ventures, a London-based pre-seed fund backing immigrant founders across Europe and the US. He focuses on writing the first check at inception stage and supporting founders in building globally scalable companies. His portfolio includes Mesh, 11x and Spore Bio, with follow-on from leading firms such as a16z, Benchmark, Index, Sequoia, and General Catalyst. He previously worked at KKR, Silver Lake, and J.P. Morgan.

Gloria Baeuerlein

PUZZLE VENTURES

Gloria is the founding partner of Puzzle Ventures, a €22 million solo GP fund supporting European inception-stage B2B founders across Europe and the US. She works closely with teams on early traction, talent, and investor access, acting as a trusted partner throughout the company-building journey. Previously, she was a VC at Technology Crossover Ventures and Index Ventures and an operator at KRY and Back, and has angel invested in over 25 companies.

Jaroslav Trojan

N1 VC

Jaroslav is a venture capital investor at N1 Ventures, an early-stage firm backing ambitious founders across Europe and beyond. He focuses on identifying high-potential startups and supporting them through the earliest phases of growth, with a particular interest in scalable, technology-driven business models. Jaroslav works closely with founding teams on strategy, fundraising, and market expansion, contributing to the firm's mission of building a globally relevant portfolio of next-generation companies.

Candice du Fretay

OUTLIER GROVE

Candice is the founding partner of Outlier Grove, an angel and seed fund backing European B2B companies from inception. Drawing on experience across Europe and the US, she supports founders in scaling globally from day one. Previously, she was a VP at Accel and began her career at Lazard in New York. Outlier Grove is supported by a network of US operators and senior executives enabling early access to talent, customers, and market entry.

Ariel Rahamim

MOVACAP VC

Ariel is a venture capital investor at Movacap, a venture platform and community connecting early-stage founders and investors. He focuses on sourcing and supporting high-potential startups, with strong exposure to the European early-stage ecosystem. Ariel is part of a new generation of operators-turned-investors contributing to the growth of globally minded venture platforms.
